524 Hardin Avenue,
Aurora, Illinois,
October 3, 1930.

Bureau of Pensions,
Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen :

I am trying to trace my family tree for admission to the D. A. R. and the records that I have do not supply the complete date.

The biographies of old settlers of Illinois contained in the Atlas Map of Pike County, Illinois published by Andreas, Lyter, and Company, Davenport, Iowa, 1872 says : "James Ham was born in Pendelton County, South Carolina, October 28, 1798. He was the second son of Joshua and Mary Ham. Mrs. Ham was the daughter of the brave General Williams of Revolutionary fame. Mr. Joshua Ham, though then a lad, witnessed the battle of Guilford Court House. He served in the war of 1812, under the command of Andrew Jackson."

I wish to know the first name of the General Williams referred to above, his date of birth, marriage, and death. I also wish to know his wife's name and the names of all his children. The only General Williams that I find any historical record of is General Otho H. Williams of Maryland who accompanied Generals Gates and Greene on the campaign into North and South Carolina.

Is there anything in your records that shows that General Otho H. Williams was the father of Mary Williams who married Joshua Ham ? If not, do you have records of any other General Williams of the revolutionary war whose daughter, Mary, married Joshua Ham ?

Is there any information about the family of Joshua Ham, a soldier in the war of 1812 under the command of General Andrew Jackson ? Joshua Ham was probably then a resident of Tennessee.

I shall greatly appreciate any of the requested information that you may be able to supply.

Respectfully yours,

Geneva Ham Smith

Date: 1925

Description: Inquiry to the Bureau f Pensions in 1925 about the service of Otho Williams and Joshua Ham.

FORM A

For Use of Soldiers, Who are in Indigent Circumstances

THE STATE OF TEXAS
County of Tarrant

I, J. C. Gibbs do hereby make application to the Commissioner of Pensions for a pension to be granted me under the Act passed by the Thirty-first Legislature of the State of Texas, and approved March 23, A. D. 1909, on the following grounds:

I enlisted and served in the military service of the Confederate States during the war between the States of the United States, and that I did not desert the Confederate service, but during said war I was loyal and true to my duty, and never at any time voluntarily abandoned my post of duty in the said service; that I was honorably discharged ~~or~~ and surrendered near Fayetteville, Arkansas, at the close of the war that I have been a bona fide citizen of this State since prior to January 1, A. D. 1880, and have been continuously since a citizen of the State of Texas. I do further state that I do not hold any National, State, city or county office which pays me a salary or fees one hundred and fifty dollars per annum, nor have I an income from any other employment or other source whatever which amounts to one hundred and fifty dollars per annum, nor do I receive from any source whatever money or other means of support amounting in value to the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum, nor do I own in my own right, nor does any one hold in trust for my benefit or use, nor does my wife own, nor does any one hold in trust for my wife, estate or property, either real, personal or mixed, either in fee or for life, of the assessed value of over one thousand dollars; nor do I receive any aid or pension from any other State, or from the United States, or from any other source, and that I am not an inmate of the Confederate Home, and I do further state that the answers given to the following questions are true:

(Give date and cause.)

1. What is your age? Will be 72years of age on the 15th day of June, 1913
2. Where were you born? East Tennessee, 10 miles from Knoxville

Wilbur D. Spencer in his "Pioneers on Maine Rivers", Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1973, states:
o Page 206, JENKINS, REGINALD, born 1608, surgeon, arrived from England with Winter March 2, 1632-3; bought a house at Eliot of John Newgrove, 1650; wife Ann; children Jabez, Mary, Philadelphia, Sarah and Stephen.
o Page 157, JENKINS, REYNOLD, trader at Dorchester, 1630; killed by Indians while trading inland from Cape Porpoise, in September, 1632.
James Savage in "A Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England", Vol II, pages 541-2, states: JENKINS, or JENKIN, o REGINALD, Dorchester 1630, is probably the man,who removed says Winth. I, 89, to Cape Porpus, there was killed by Indians 1632.
o REGINALD, Kittery, who submitted 1652, to the jurisdiction of Massachusetts; removed to Dover, there by wife Ann had Philidelphia, who married 14 June 1676, Matthew Estes. He may have been the son of the preceding.
Charles Henry Pope in "The Pioneers of Maine and New Hampshire, 1623-1660", page 109, discussed Reginald Jenkins, yeoman, one of the fishermen at Richmond Island in 1637, settled at Kittery, took oath, etc. Pope mentions daughter Philadelphia and sons Stephen and Jabez.
Old Families of Kittery p549
Reynold (called also Reginald) Jenkins, born in 1608 as a deposition shows, was in the service of John Winter at Richmond's Island from 1634 to 1639. He was living in what is now Eliot, 1647-1683. Wife's name was Ann. Their children were:
PHILADELPHIA b. 1645; m. Edward Hayes, (2) Matthew Estes 14 June 1676; d. 25 Dec. 1721, at Lynn, Mass.
STEPHEN b. 1653; m. Elizabeth Pitman, (2) Ann (???).
JABEZ b. 1655; m. Hannah Curtis.
MARY m. John Green 12 Sept. 1666.
SARAH m. Jonathan Nason.
JOSEPH? had grant in Dover in 1694.
Old Families of Kittery
Jabez was the son of Reynold Jenkins, who has been mentioned several times. Reynold was in the service of John Winter at Richmond's Island as early as 1634. He was living here on the Newichawannock about 1640 and is mentioned in 1683. He was affiliated with the Quakers from the beginning of their preaching in Dover and Kittery, and he and neighboring Friends were more than once presented at Court for not attending the services of the church on the Lord's Day.

At Kittery Me., Reginald Jenkins testified in 1683 that "between forty and fifty years since," that is, earlier than 1643, he bought "six acres of Land of John Newgrove, beginning at the water side between the Lands of Thomas Jones and Joshua Downing." Jenkins built a house and lived here for a while land after the death of William Everett he offered th place to his widow, in the charity of his heaert, but the widow seems to have been too proud to receive it as a gift, as a deposition her daughter Martha, afterward Nathan Lord's wife, shows. At the age of forty-two, she testifies that "when she was little,, her mother having ten shillings of her, as the Deponent heard my mother say, which money the Deponents Mother Margaret Everett layd out for six acres of Land which she bought of Renald Jenkins, which Land this Deponents husband would nto accept of, upon ye refusall wrof the Deponents Mother gave him a steere in lew wrof and her Mother sould that six Acres of Land to Mr. Will Leighton." Did Boaz treat Ruth any better than friend Jenkins did this little fatherless child and her mother? As early as 1634, he was in the service of John Winter at Richmond's Island, and was living here on the Newickawaunock at 1640 and is Imentioned in 1683. He was affiliated with the Quakers from the beginning of their preaching in Dover and Kittery, and he and the neighboring Friends were more than once presented at court for not attending the services of the church on the Lord's Day. History of Nathan Lord of Kittery, ME Page 2 March 8, 1671-2. Abram Tilton conveys to Miles Thomson, Sr., and Israel Hodgdon, "all that tract of upland and meadow bought of Nathan Lord . . . forty acres lying at the east end of the heathy marsh and which was granted unto Reginald Jenkins by the town of Kittery." The meadow was formerly in the possession of Jenkins.

From David Jenkins in response to my questions about the other Ann Gale family in England.
I have seen this before, and they may or may not our family , but they do have Ann Gale's death place as Kittery Maine. As the LDS, I'm not sure in which one to believe in Reginald left England and came to America on the 'Agnes' sailed sometime after March 26, 1636, with John Winter, master, and arrived May 24, 1636. The 'Agnes' returned to England in June with a Captain Bowes as master. The passengers were: Reverend Richard Gibson, an Anglican minister from Cambridge, who was at Richmond Island; Arthur Gill of Saltash, Cornwall, at Richmond Island; Peter Gullett, at Richmond Island and died later in 1636; Andrew Heifer, at Richmond Island; Reynold Jenkins, who may have come from Broomfield, Somerset, was at Kittery; and, John Lopes and Tobias Short, who were at Richmond Island and probably returned to England. Reginald was indentured to Winter, fishing on Richmond Island, the men in Winter's employ 'there were forty-seven in 1637'slept in one of these chambers, and each man had his close-boarded cabin or bunk. Reginald was living here on the Newichawannock (South Berwick, Maine) about 1640 Reginald Reynolds Jenkins was affiliated with the Quakers from the beginning of their preaching in Dover, New Hampshire, and Kittery, Maine and he and neighboring 'Friends' (Quakers) were more than once presented at Court for not attending the services of the church on the Lord's Day. Reginald, settled in Kittery, Maine (Eliot, Maine) 1647, and took oath of allegence to Massassachusetts goverment on November 16,1652. As a quaker,in 1652, Reginald was petitioned to be under Massachusetts 'We whose names are written vunder do acknowledg our selves subject to the government of the Massachusetts Bay in New England' maybe his family didn't come to America until he became a freeman, this could cause the confusion, or other poss. is that they reported the births back to England. I have seen this often when two towns or more have been reported to be the birthplace of the same person. So at this time i am sticking with Ann Gale is the wife, Edward and Joan as the parents since the above story (Reynold Jenkins, who may have come from Broomfield, Somerset,) seem to point at this is our true ancestor, [but please continue letting me know more of your theories, because maybe we will solve this

State of Tennessee
County of Henderson } ss.

On the [illegible] day of December AD one thousand eight hundred and fifty three, personally appeared before me an acting Justice of the Peace within and for the county and state aforesaid, Caleb S Wood aged 63 years a resident of Henderson county, in the State of Tennessee who being duly sworn according to law declares upon his oath, that he is the son of Charles Wood, who was a corporal in Captain John [illegible] company, and served in the Continental line in North and South Carolina and was in prison in Charleston, S.C. in 1780. He further declares that his father, Charles Wood died in [illegible] county in the State of Tennessee in the year [illegible] leaving his mother Rose Wood a widow. He further declares that his father and mother were married in Bedford county, in the State of Virginia previous to his father going into service. He further declares that his mother Rose Wood died in the year 1837 leaving [illegible] children ten of whom are now living, namely, Thomas, Caleb S, [illegible], Christopher, [illegible], John and William, Elizabeth [illegible], Anna [illegible], Nancy [illegible].

He makes this declaration for the purpose of receiving the pension money due his mother Rose Wood, for the benefit of himself and brothers and sisters under the act of Congress passed July 4th 1836.

Surname meaning for "Isbell"

English: from the female personal name Isabel(l)(a). This originated as a variant of Elizabeth, a name which owed its popularity in medieval Europe to the fact that it was borne by John the Baptist's mother. The original form of the name was Hebrew Elisheva 'my God (is my) oath'; it appears thus in Exodus 6:23 as the name of Aaron's wife. By New Testament times the second element had been altered to Hebrew shabat 'rest', 'Sabbath'. The form Isabella originated in Spain, the initial syllable being detached because of its resemblance to the definite article el, and the final one being assimilated to the characteristic Spanish feminine ending -ella. The name in this form was introduced to France in the 13th century, being borne by a sister of St. Louis who lived as a nun after declining marriage with the Holy Roman Emperor. Thence it was taken to England, where it achieved considerable popularity as an independent personal name alongside its doublet Elizabeth.

Surname meaning for "Oliver"

English, Scottish, Welsh, and German: from the Old French personal name Olivier, which was taken to England by the Normans from France. It was popular throughout Europe in the Middle Ages as having been borne by one of Charlemagne's paladins, the faithful friend of Roland, about whose exploits there were many popular romances. The name ostensibly means 'olive tree' (see Oliveira), but this is almost certainly the result of folk etymology working on an unidentified Germanic personal name, perhaps a cognate of Alvaro. The surname is also borne by Jews, apparently as an adoption of the non-Jewish surname.

Surname meaning for "Butler"

English and Irish: from a word that originally denoted a wine steward, usually the chief servant of a medieval household, from Norman French butuiller (Old French bouteillier, Latin buticularius, from buticula 'bottle'). In the large households of royalty and the most powerful nobility, the title came to denote an officer of high rank and responsibility, only nominally concerned with the supply of wine, if at all.
